No Fap = Bro Astrology 0:00

- Carter flatly dismisses the no-fap movement as nonsense
 - His analogy: hearing a guy talk about no fap is the same as hearing a woman talk about collecting crystals and keeping them by her bedside
 - The comparison frames it as magical thinking with no real-world basis — superstition dressed up as self-improvement

The Strategic Pro Fap Philosophy 0:22

- His counter-philosophy is what he calls "strategic pro fap"
 - The core logic: if your mind won't stop thinking about women and it's breaking your focus, the practical solution is to masturbate and eliminate the distraction
 - Explicit instruction: "Rub one out and get to work"
 - The goal is purely pragmatic — restore mental clarity and get back to being productive, not a lifestyle ideology
 - No ritual, no rules around abstinence — just a tool to clear your head when needed
