The Three Compliments 0:00

- Compliment 1 — The Suit: "He's never had a suit tailored. They all just simply fit."
 - Implies his physique and bearing are so perfect that off-the-rack suits conform to him, not the other way around.
- Compliment 2 — The Sunglasses: "It's been said that his sunglasses protect the sun from his gaze."
 - Inverts the normal function of sunglasses — instead of shielding his eyes from the sun, his stare is so powerful it threatens the sun itself.
- Compliment 3 — The Rubik's Cube: "He is yet to complete a Rubik's Cube as he refuses to punch down."
 - Frames solving a Rubik's Cube as an act of bullying — the puzzle being beneath him; completing it would be an unfair contest against a lesser opponent.
- Closing declaration: "He is the most cultured man in the world."
 - Standard sign-off mirroring the Dos Equis "most interesting man" ad campaign format.
