🌐 Why You Need to Prepare Now 0:00

- Multiple converging threats are driving governments to issue preparedness warnings:
  - Increased AI-driven cyberattacks hitting websites and infrastructure
  - Geopolitical tensions including rumors of military action against Iran
  - Extreme weather events tied to El Niño cycles
- The Pentagon has instructed military bases to be self-sufficient for 90 days — this is the benchmark civilians should also target

- Recent real-world examples cited:
  - A Midwest state (possibly Indiana) lost power for two consecutive weeks
  - Parts of Washington D.C. lost power recently, though it was not nationwide
- Brandon describes himself as a long-time prepper — he was already prepared when Hurricane Sandy hit New York

💵 Item 1: Cash and Important Documents 1:13

- If the grid goes down, all digital payment systems go offline:
  - Debit cards, credit cards, Apple Pay — none of it works without power
  - You'll be limited to cash or barter
- Action: Go to the bank now and withdraw several thousand dollars (
