🔍 Can You Skip Breakfast and Still Get Shredded? 0:00

- The answer is yes — you can skip breakfast, lunch, or even brunch and still get shredded
 - Meal timing is not the determining factor for fat loss
 - What actually matters is hitting the right calories and macros each day

📊 The Calorie and Protein Formula 0:00

- Calorie target: $\text{bodyweight (in pounds)} \times 10 = \text{daily calories needed to get shredded}$
- Protein target: at least 1 gram of protein per pound of bodyweight per day
 - Purpose: preserve as much muscle mass as possible while cutting

Target	Formula
Daily Calories	$\text{Bodyweight (lbs)} \times 10$
Daily Protein	$\text{Bodyweight (lbs)} \times 1 \text{ g}$
