Executive Summary

Brandon Carter outlines four daily habits online coaches must build to grow revenue: blocking time for sales, starting 20 real DM conversations, tracking key business metrics, and using AI to review and improve sales calls.

Contents

-  Habit 1: Set Up Daily Sales Blocks
-  Habit 2: Start 20 DM Conversations Per Day
-  Habit 3: Track All Your Numbers
-  Habit 4: Review Every Sales Call with AI

Habit 1: Set Up Daily Sales Blocks 0:00

- Carve out dedicated, protected time each day specifically for sales activity
 - Two distinct uses for this block:
 - Conducting sales calls
 - Following up with warm leads
- The implication is that without a scheduled block, sales activity gets deprioritized or skipped entirely

Habit 2: Start 20 DM Conversations Per Day 0:05

- The goal is 20 real conversations with potential leads every single day
- Critical distinction between outreach and a conversation:
 - A conversation = you message someone AND they message back
 - If they don't reply, it is outreach only — not a conversation
 - Example used: "My boy John has DM'd Sydney Sweeney hundreds of times, but she never replied, so they have never had a conversation."
- Expect a low conversion rate from outreach to conversation:
 - You may need to send 100 outreach messages to generate 20 actual conversations

- This reframes the daily workload — the real target is 100 outreach attempts to hit the 20-conversation goal

Habit 3: Track All Your Numbers 0:35

- You cannot improve what you do not measure — "If you're not tracking your slack, we can't improve or we don't measure."
- Five specific metrics to track consistently:
 - Leads per week
 - Booked calls per week
 - Show rate (what percentage of booked calls actually show up)
 - Close rate (what percentage of calls convert to a sale)
 - Cash collected per sales call
- Tracking these reveals exactly where the bottleneck in your sales pipeline is

Habit 4: Review Every Sales Call with AI 0:45

- Record and upload each sales call to an AI tool for structured feedback
 - Tools mentioned: Claude ("Claw") and ChatGPT ("Chat Jippity")
- Ask the AI three specific questions:
 - What did I do right?
 - What did I do wrong?
 - How can I improve my sales skills?
- This creates a systematic, low-cost feedback loop for continuous sales skill development without needing a coach or mentor
