📋 Executive Summary

ZssBecker argues that AI-generated films from small passionate teams are not soulless, contrasting them favorably with recent Hollywood output, which they harshly criticize as activist-driven, low-quality content disguised within beloved childhood franchises.

Do not tell me AI movies and animations from small teams that care are soulless slop.

What we've seen from Hollywood the last ten years.

The hate filled rainbow painted activist pedo content hiding in the skin of our favorite child hood stories.

That's the FUCKING slop.
