Reframing Personal Brand 0:00

- Most people treat personal brand as a vanity metric — follower counts, likes, social proof for its own sake
- Luong's view: personal brand is a business decision, not a popularity contest
 - To see it that way, you must first understand how leverage works
 - Solving for leverage leads to "massive outlier success" in business, career, or personal life

The Five Forms of Leverage 0:23

- Labor — people working for you
- Capital — money working for you
- Code and Tools — software and systems running without you
- Media — grabbing attention at scale; content earns views, followers, and eyeballs even while you sleep
 - This is where personal brand lives as a leverage mechanism
- AI — described as a newer, fifth form; intelligent automation that compounds your output
