-  Habit 1: Set Up a Daily Sales Block
-  Habit 2: Start 20 DM Conversations Per Day
-  Habit 3: Track All Your Numbers
-  Habit 4: Review Every Sales Call with AI
-  Bonus: Personalized Revenue Game Plan

Habit 1: Set Up a Daily Sales Block 0:00

- Dedicate a specific, protected time slot each day exclusively for sales calls
 - Treating it as a non-negotiable block ensures consistency and prevents it from being crowded out by other tasks

Habit 2: Start 20 DM Conversations Per Day 0:05

- The goal is 20 actual conversations — defined as an exchange where the other person messages back
 - Simply sending a message is outreach, not a conversation
 - Example given: "My boy John has DM'd Sydney Sweeney hundreds of times, but she never replied — so they have never had a conversation"
- Expect to send up to 100 outreach messages to generate 20 real conversations
 - The gap between outreach volume and conversation volume is a normal part of the process

Habit 3: Track All Your Numbers 0:22

- You cannot improve what you don't measure — tracking is non-negotiable
- Five specific metrics to monitor every week:
 - Leads generated per week
 - Booked calls per week
 - Show rate (what percentage of booked calls actually show up)

- Close rate (what percentage of calls convert to paying clients)
- Cash collected per sales call

Habit 4: Review Every Sales Call with AI 0:35

- Upload recordings of each sales call to an AI tool (mentions Claude or ChatGPT)
- Ask the AI to analyze:
 - What you did right
 - What you did wrong
 - How you can improve your sales skills
- Turns every call — won or lost — into a learning opportunity

Bonus: Personalized Revenue Game Plan 0:43

- Brandon Carter claims to have helped over 15,000 people grow successful online fitness businesses
- Offer: comment the word "revenue" on the video
 - He will send an AI tool that asks a few questions and maps out exactly what you need to do each day to hit your income goals as an online trainer
