The Video Idea Workflow 0:04

- Step 1: Install a Chrome extension that lets you copy all video URLs from any YouTuber's channel page.
- Step 2: Go to your favorite (i.e., top-performing) YouTuber's YouTube page and use the extension to copy all their video URLs.
- Step 3: Paste those links into NotebookLM (Google's AI research tool).
- Step 4: Prompt NotebookLM to "give you 20 video ideas based off the sources."
 - The AI generates ideas derived from videos that have already been proven to perform well.
 - This removes the guesswork — ideas are grounded in real, validated content rather than speculation.
- Outcome: "You'll immediately get a ton of videos based off videos that have already been proven to perform well."

"Now, you never have to worry about coming up with content ideas again."

Free Live Training Offer 0:28
