Executive Summary

Becker vents frustration over followers ignoring his risk disclaimers on micro-cap coins, celebrates those who survived the crypto bear market, and pushes back on claims he quit crypto or missed alt season.

If you stuck it out through this crypto bear.

Congrats. You deserve more than literally anyone in the history of anything to "make it".

You're a psycho. A fucking psycho.

@GetMeCash To all the people asking why.

Im sick of spending literally 10 minutes every video explaining risk, that im gambling, to not buy micros if your new, to not invest serious money, to expect the coins to go to zero.

Then have people do the polar opposite, go hard on micros
