Executive Summary

ZssBecker argues that AI is ushering in an era where solo introverts and tiny 2-3 person studios can build empires and generate massive revenue, making personal branding obsolete and small creative teams the biggest opportunity on earth.

The age of the 2-3 man movie/anime/managa/publishing studio is here.

Dragon Slayer Infinity Castle made 800 million. Split between thousands of people.

Imagine in 2-3 dudes in a garage splitting that. Biggest money making opportunity on earth right now. https://twitter.com/Goyart_studio/status/2105296433478037729
