The 3-Step Framework: Content → Conversations → Sales 0:22

- The entire business model for an online trainer collapses into three steps:
 - Step 1 — Make content that gets engagement
 - Step 2 — Start conversations with people who engage with that content
 - Step 3 — Convert those conversations into sales calls, then close them
- Every tactic covered in the video is in service of one of these three steps

The Engagement Matrix: Why Instagram Reels & Followers Don't Matter 1:07

- Instagram is identified as the #1 platform for online trainers to make money
- Reels get the most engagement on IG — the primary content format to use
- Key insight: a large following is NOT required
 - Example 1: A creator with 158K followers got 3.7 million views on a single Reel (searched under
