Executive Summary

Brandon Carter shares the five books he'd read to make $10K from scratch, spanning business roadmaps, persuasion, sales pitching, negotiation, and foundational sales psychology.

Contents

- 📖 Book 1: Ready, Fire, Aim
- 🧠 Book 2: Influence by Robert Cialdini
- 🎯 Book 3: Pitch Anything
- 🤝 Book 4: Never Split the Difference
- 📁 Book 5: The Psychology of Selling

Book 1: Ready, Fire, Aim 0:00

- Lays out exactly what to do to grow a business from zero to $100 million a year
 - Covers every step in between, providing a complete roadmap
 - Brandon notes he is still working through some of the steps himself
- Described as applicable to "any business" as a universal framework
- Called a "phenomenal book" overall

Book 2: Influence by Robert Cialdini 0:23

- Breaks down a roadmap for how to influence people to make decisions
- Brandon considers it required reading for any entrepreneur
 - Especially recommended for marketers and salespeople

Book 3: Pitch Anything 0:23

- Required reading for anyone involved in sales of any kind
- Brandon has read or listened to it over 100 times
 - Claims to learn something new every single time
- Key framing: "It's not a book you read, it's a book you study"

Book 4: Never Split the Difference 0:47

- Written by Chris Voss, a former FBI negotiator
- Focused entirely on negotiation tactics
 - Voss developed these techniques negotiating with terrorists and bank robbers
- Brandon's takeaway: if those tactics work on criminals, they can absolutely get you a better deal in everyday business situations

Book 5: The Psychology of Selling by Brian Tracy 0:47

- Recommended for anyone doing sales in their business
- Lays down a "really solid foundation" for sales fundamentals
- Brandon calls it the best beginner book on sales
